FEES

Fees for a Last Will and Testament are generally between $450.00 and $1,250.00, per Will. The fees depend on whether the Wills are for a couple, first or second marriage, single person, or involve estate tax planning. A fact situation where Wills are generally $450.00, per Will is:

A couple, first marriage, identical Will provisions. The Will and fee includes trusts for minor children, guardian, and executor. Fee $450.00 per Will, total $900.00 for the couple.

Coordination of Last Will and Testament with Beneficiary Designation Assets: The cost of the Will includes overall advice on coordinating a Will with beneficiary designations, such as life insurance. Beneficiary designation and rights of survivorship style accounts are independent from your Will's beneficiaries.

Timeframe for Wills and Powers of Attorney: Badeaux and Associates has a streamlined, but thorough process for its Will and estate planning clients. The process generally takes 2-3 weeks from beginning to end. The process is:

- i) An attorney meets with you, listens to your goals and objectives, asks relevant questions, gives advice, options and alternatives, and obtains all of the information to prepare your Last Will and Testament and Powers of Attorney.

- ii) Approximately 2 weeks later, Badeaux and Associates mails the drafts of the Wills and Powers of Attorney to you for your review,

- iii) You contact our law firm when you are ready to sign the Wills and Powers of Attorney in our office. We provide the notary and 2 witnesses.

- iv) The original Wills and Powers of Attorney are given to you for safe keeping, and Badeaux and Associates keeps a copy.

TIME TO COMPLETE DOCUMENTS

We have a streamlined time frame for estate planning clients which is generally 2-3 weeks, if not shorter. In general the process is: 1.) meeting with clients and collecting all facts necessary to draft the Wills and Powers of Attorney, 2.) approximately 2-3 weeks after first meeting, mailing drafts of all documents to clients to review, and 3.) clients calling to set appointment to sign documents in our office. We provide witnesses and notary.
